

Jim Quealy | Singer Songwriter

Jim Quealy is a singer songwriter who grew up on Long Island and started writing songs and playing local bars in 1971. Jim has since resided and performed in New York City, NY, Nashville, TN, Los Angeles, CA and in London, England. Jim now lives and works in Orange County. For the past 28 years, Jim has played at Captain Jack's (Sunset Beach) where he has enjoyed playing all audience requests regardless of genre or familiarity. Since the pandemic lockdowns in mid-March, he has been playing an online series of shows, every Friday and Saturday from 6 – 10 p.m. including playing online requests either solo or accompanying his wife, Nola Shepherd. Jim and Nola met as SESAC songwriters in Nashville in 2005. They released "Nashville Sessions" in 2007. They continue to perform online every Friday and Saturday from Lockedown Studios. The shows are shot, edited and produced by Locke Weesner. Hundreds of requested single-song videos are posted on Facebook. You can also listen to their music on Spotify.

More on Jim Quealy:

- Discography
- Songs written by JQ and performed by other artists
- Photos